WASHINGTON GOSSIP.

THE PRESIDENTIAL CONTEST—THE CHICAGO NOMINATIONS—THE DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATES—SPECULATION—CHIEF JUSTICE CHASE—THE IMPEACHMENT SITUATION AND MR. WADE.

WASHINGTON, May 24.—The Chicago nominations and the platform attached thereto have, during the past forty-eight hours, been discussed by the leading representatives now assembled in this city, and already laid aside, for the time being, to canvass the merits of proposed nominees of the Democrats and Conservatives.

The general verdict as to the Grant and Colfax nominations is that they are the strongest that could have been selected from among the candidates. As, however, Gen. Grant was the only candidate for President, the judgment does not amount to much as applied to the head of the ticket; but the verdict is fairly applicable to Mr. Colfax, who has the faculty of cohesion, of making and keeping friends, whilst his most formidable competitor, Wade, is a repellant, and succeeds in making some of the most uncompromising enemies.

Speculation to-night is rife with regard to the probable nominee of the convention to meet in New York on the 4th. of July. The leaders of the Pendleton interest have been here, during the past ten days, taking a view of the situation, and the friends of Gen. Hancock, in considerable force, have been upon the ground to compare notes and look over the field from a national standpoint. Ardent admirers of Seymour, Hendricks and Adams have also been amongst us, but not in such organized combination.

From a thorough interchange of opinions between the gent emen representing or supporting the above named proposed nominees, it is found that there is entire unanimity upon one proposition namely: That in order to secure the nomination to the person who may be generally conceded to be the most popular among the entire Conservative masses, (Democratic and Republican,) the special interests of each particular candidate, and the preferences for them, shall give way, and all shall cheerfully unite to secure the most available candidate.

One of the prominent candidates has himself written a letter to a friend in this city, in which he takes this ground, and adds that if it shall be found that in the Convention some other candidate is the preference, even by one vote, he desires that his friends promptly support that man.

In this comparison of views another fact is discovered, namely, that Chief Justice Chase would receive the hearty support of all these factions, and is always mentioned as their second choice at least, and among the most influential conservative men here, there is started up quite a formidable party in favor of the nomination of Chase and Seymour, or the latter refusing to permit his name to go before the Convention, then that George English be nominated for the Vice-Presidency. This ticket, to-night seems to be the accepted available combination, and beside the various arguments presented in its favor, it is urged that Judge Chase could carry seventy electoral votes from the South; that he would receive the entire Democratic vote, and would command more conservative republicans and disaffected radicals than any other person that could be nominated.

There are other candidates named for the Presidency, but there does not appear to be any united action among their friends. Of this class President Johnson, who has a great number of supporters who would prefer him to any other nominee, but they are waiting the end of impeachment before organizing for effective canvass.

WASHINGTON, May 24.

General Grant and the Political Campaign—The Generalship of the Armies—Speaker Colfax's Prospects and Future—The Impeachment Vote on Tuesday—Local Matters, &c.

It is said that General Grant is already showing much sensitiveness in regard to the comments of the partisan newspapers since his nomination for the Presidency. Other men just as pure and high toned as General Grant have been compelled to endure invidious remarks by the public press before to-day, and now that General Grant has voluntarily consented to mix in the muddy pool of politics, he cannot complain if his garments become solid. The fact that he has determined to take no formal part in the canvass, cannot alter his position as a candidate for the suffrages of the people, and, of course, his merits and claims to the position to which he now aspires will be discussed as freely and unreservedly as those of any other candidate.

Some of the Northern Democratic papers have commenced calling on him to resign his position as the commander of the armies, holding that it is manifestly improper for him to retain it in view of the circumstances now surrounding him. Gen. Grant has, however, determined, in accordance with his own feelings and the advice of his friends, to do nothing of the kind. He will follow the example of Gen. Scott, and will not surrender his commission until after the November election, nor then if he should not be the successful candidate for President. As an evidence of the high regard entertained for him, his friends in Congress have not only counselled him to this course, but have promised to keep the place of 'General' warm for him until after he has served out his Presidential term, when he will peacefully step back into his old shoes. This nice little arrangement is predicated upon the supposition that the party now in power is to have a perpetual lease on the Government.

MR. STEPHENS'S ADVICE TO YOUNG MEN. A young gentleman in Savannah, Georgia, has recently received a letter from Hon. A. H. Stephens, in which he says:

"Allow me, then, briefly, at this late day, to say, in reply to your inquiries, that I would not advise the young men of this country to leave it. Bad as things are in it, and bad as the prospect of a wise state of things ahead, yet I see or know of no country where the future prospects of a young man are any better than here.

"As I have said before, I repeat, that while others may choose to take to the lifeboats, and make their escape from our terrible wreck, yet, as for myself, I see no hope in them, and am resolved to remain, and, if need be, go down with the ship.

"Yours truly,

ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS."

FREEDOM AND SLAVERY.—The following shows how much better off the negroes were when they were slaves than they are at present:

The same hands employed in a tobacco factory in the year 1860, when they were slaves, and fed and clothed by the manufacturer, drew more extra pay for over work than the identical laborers now draw. The excess of payment, when in servitude exceeds, by careful examination of the pay rolls of one of the largest manufacturers in the State, at least an average of twenty per cent., and in exceptional cases, fifty per cent. On inquiry of the almost incredible difference, we were told that when slaves, they worked more steadily, easily performed the task imposed and then, without trouble, earned an amount of extra pay, averaging the percentage mentioned. Frequent calls to meetings of societies and to political gatherings, together with a disinclination to perform service as heretofore, are the real reasons of the discrepancy.—Pd. Express.

A REBUFF.—A white Radical, while discussing with a negro the necessity of voting for white men in preference to their dusky brethren, was somewhat "set back" by the negro asking him what interest he had in Virginia.

The Radical replied: "Oh! I married here."

"Negro: 'You did? Well, I was here fust, and Ize gwine to vote for Bayne certain; and if you folks at de Norf don't like de nigger, "what de debbil does you come here for?"—Norfolk Virginian.

"Brick Pomeroy" obtains a decided advantage in the contest of wit with those who say his paper circulates among only the most depraved. He says:

They say all the bad men are taking this paper and will vote as it teaches. If this be so, the Republican party will lose five-sixths of its strength. No wonder we are not in favor with Jacobin leaders.

AGENTS WANTED FOR THE

OFFICIAL HISTORY

OF THE WAR,

ITS CAUSES, CHARACTER, CONDUCT AND RESULTS.

By HON. ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS.

A BOOK FOR ALL SECTIONS AND ALL PARTIES.

THIS GREAT WORK PRESENTS THE ONLY complete and impartial analysis of the causes of the War yet published, and gives those interior lights and shadows of the great conflict only known to those high officers who watched the flood-tide of revolution from its fountain springs, and which were so accessible to Mr. Stephens, from his position as second officer of the Confederacy.

To a public that has been surfeited with APPARENTLY SIMILAR PRODUCTIONS, we promise a change of fare, both agreeable and salutary, and an intellectual treat of the highest order. The Great American War has AT LAST found a historian worthy of its importance, and at whose hands it will receive that moderate, candid and impartial treatment which truth and justice so urgently demand.

The intense desire everywhere manifested to obtain this work, its official character and ready sale, combined with an increased commission, make it the best subscription book ever published.

HOW THEY STAND.

We suggested some days ago, that the impression which seemed to exist to some extent, that the Radical Senators who had respected their solemn oaths in voting for the acquittal of the President, had abandoned the Radical party so far as to suppose that they might sustain the Presidential Veto against the adoption by Congress of the new Constitutions of the Southern States and the removal of disabilities, was premature. The violence of the attacks of the vengeance Radicals upon those Senators, while it may tend to alienate their feelings from their former co-partizans, yet if they were honest men and Radicals from principle, they could not after having sustained the unconstitutional and vicious action of Congress in its attempts to reconstruct the Southern States, honorably abandon the project just at the point of success. If they had been the wise and forecasting statesmen which the Radicals profess to believe, they could never have been entrapped in a policy so destructive to sound republicanism, or had they have been as honest and as capable and as patriotic as is claimed for them, they would have risen above the mere temptation to partizan success in the outset, and have gone against the plan of reconstruction proposed by the Radical party. That whole scheme violates as palpably the oaths taken by those men to support the Constitution, as their voting to convict the President of the charges alledged, would have violated their oaths to do justice to Andrew Johnson according to the law and the evidence.

It seems to have been forgotten that many of the wisest and most far seeing Radicals, were utterly opposed to impeachment, as an unwise and hazardous measure from the first. The progress of impeachment and its influence upon the public mind, only served to convince thoughtful men the more, that it would be damaging in any event to the Radical party. We do not doubt that the so-called recusant Senators who voted for acquittal, were influenced in their votes by that consideration, and being sustained by their judgments as to the utter failure of the impeachers, they could not have done otherwise than to vote for the President's acquittal. The Radical party will doubtless come to the conclusion in a short time that they were right, and we shall hear of no more abuse of Fessenden, Trumbull and others. Messrs. Trumbull and Fessenden have already made haste to restore themselves to the arms of Radicalism, and will doubtless vote with the party, on the restoration of the Southern States, however vile or unjust to the Southern people their new Constitutions may be.

There is also a large amount of humbuggery in regard to Chief Justice Chase and the formation of a new party. Mr. Chase is too thoroughly identified with the organization and foundation principles of the Radical party to hope for such a change so sudden, and so radical at his time of life, as would inspire the Democracy or truly Conservative men of any phase of political opinion, with sufficient confidence in him to place him on the Democratic ticket even if Judge Chase desired it. That he is so ambitious and so bent upon the Presidency as to be willing to run on the Democratic ticket and accept its platform, we do not believe; or that he would risk utter annihilation by putting himself up as the leader of a third party, composed of moderate or Conservative Republicans, is simply ridiculous.

No man certainly will be chosen on the Democratic ticket who has the smell of Radicalism upon his garments, and this disposes of Judge Chase. The Democratic nominee must have a clear record upon the great distinguishing principle, which alone fully characterises a Conservative from a Radical, that is, the doctrine of negro equality and universal negro suffrage. We may as soon expect the leopard to change his spots as Judge Chase to abandon this position.

STANTON RESIGNED.

Before 1 o'clock on Tuesday last, President Johnson was acquitted before the Court of Impeachment. At 3½ o'clock, Mr. Stanton's resignation of the War Office was placed in the hands of the President. If he had done so twelve months ago, how much trouble and expense would have been saved the country.

GRANT'S POLITICS IN 1861.

In a speech General Grant, then Colonel, made to his regiment, in 1861, he said:

"I am a Democrat, every man in my regiment is a Democrat, and when I shall be convinced that this war has for its object any other than what I have mentioned, or the Government designs using its soldiers to execute the purposes of the abolitionists, I pledge you my honor as a soldier that I will carry my sword on the other side, and cast my lot with that people."—Col. U. S. Grant in 1861.

The last part is not very transparent. Did he mean he would cast his lot with the abolitionists? We judge so, from the language employed.

COMMODORE MAURY.—Commodore M. F. Maury is about to return to his native State, and give her the benefit of his superior attainments by taking charge of a department of the Virginia Military Institute. His acceptance of the appointment, made by the Board of Visitors some months ago, has been communicated, and his arrival at the institute will be about the last of June.

REMOVAL OF DISABILITIES.

The House bill removing disabilities from persons in this State will be found in another column. The list of names will surprise many. As a general rule no names were inserted except those who were supposed would vote the Radical ticket, though here and there, in a few instances, will be found names of gentlemen, such as Mr. Boyden's, B. F. Moore's and a few others who were opposed to the new Constitution. A more imperfect bill we have never seen. Perhaps in fifty cases the names are improperly spelled; in several cases the same county and the same name are mentioned twice. Open and avowed secessionists and ardent war men, appear prominently, while the names of many of the best Union men in the State, are omitted. As a sort of omnibus operation many names are crowded at the bottom of the list from different counties in the State, but all hailing from the same county. If the Congress were to stop to make any proper inquiry into the character and history of these applicants for pardon, it would very materially change its features. Nor can Congress maintain its consistency at all, if it really desires to carry out its own acts, by removing a portion of the disabilities of some of the officers elect under or rather outside of the new Constitution as Mr. Stevens would say, without removing the disabilities of all the officers elected.

We have published the bill as it passed the House, without correcting the errors in the names.

OUR UNIVERSITY.—Although we treated sadly on yesterday the prospects of the University if thrown into Radical hands, and invited its Alumni to its funeral, yet we are far from believing that the Institution is necessarily doomed to go down, unless the principles of Radicalism are incorporated into its conduct and management. The General Assembly may act more magnanimously than we have feared. If the Institution is placed under the control of eighty-nine of the best men that can be selected from each county in the State, without regard to party, or sect, as Trustees, and are not trammelled by partizan enactments of the Legislature, and if the Board of Trustees are careful in the selection of a Faculty which will be acceptable to the people of the State, and who are not infected with the fanatical idea of negro equality, the Institution may live and be a blessing to the State. The entire responsibility of its future rests with the General Assembly and the Board of Trustees who may be selected. The present Faculty and Board of Trustees have fully discharged their obligations to the State. The obligations of the present Board will not end until their successors are duly appointed.—The interests of Education demand of the General Assembly, that it ignore party and look to the future well being of that Institution, in what it shall do. If it shall allow the spirit of Radical politics to control it, its doom is sealed. With the party in power rests the responsibility.

COLORED OFFICERS.—The New York Observer, a religious paper, makes the following strange announcement; in speaking of the influence of the "American Missionary Association:"

"Its schools have been the harbinger of the common school system in the South. One of its Superintendents has been chosen Superintendent of Education in North Carolina, and another, Secretary of State in South Carolina. Both these are COLORED men."

The above is correct in regard to the newly elected Secretary of State of South Carolina, but it is a mistake, we judge, in reference to the Superintendent of Education in this State. Ashley, we believe, is a white man, and until recently, a citizen of Massachusetts. Devoted as he is to the negro, we presume he will be surprised to learn, that near home, he is regarded as a colored man.

GEN. CANBY issued an order, on Tuesday, removing thirteen of the eighteen Aldermen of Charleston, and appointing persons to fill the vacancies under the new organization. There will be seven negroes on the Board.

FOUND DEAD.—A correspondent of the Petersburg Index from Nash County, on the 23rd. inst. says:

We learn that on Thursday last an old and celebrated hog thief named Jack was found dead in the woods, on the plantation of Benj. Dunn, deceased, on Fishing Creek. A bullet had penetrated the old sinner's body, and by his side lay a dead hog, which hog had come to his death from wounds inflicted by said Jack.

John Stuart Mill opposes the abolition of capital punishment on what he terms merciful grounds. What is death? he says.—The pain of it and the seriousness of it are greatly exaggerated. One of the members of parliament, the eccentric Mr. Neate, who has been professor of political economy at Oxford University, was so indignant at the decision of parliament to continue to hang, that he wanted to have the gallows put up in parliament yard in the afternoon, just as the members were coming down to their House. He prefers the garrote or the guillotine to the rope, and thinks carbonic acid—which he says the murderer might be allowed to take himself—better than either

In personal appearance Lord Brougham was tall and stalwart, with exceedingly large bones, a highly developed forehead and a nose remarkably long, but what the French term retrousse, or turned up. When he was excited it positively quivered with emotion. He was capable of enduring almost incredible fatigue; and in the early half of his career, like all leading public men in England during that period, he was of highly convivial habits; but for the last thirty years he was strictly temperate, and ultimately practiced almost total abstinence.

A legal decision has been made in New York to the effect that a bank is liable, if its paying teller pronounces a check or certificate good, even although it be a forgery, provided the check-holder acts on the statement of the teller, and suffer loss thereby.

Farming is to-day the most important industry in California—more important than mining. So says the San Francisco Bulletin.

NORTH CAROLINA MEDICAL CONVENTION.

This body met at Warrenton on the 20th inst., and was in session three days. Our friends in attendance failing to furnish us a notice of its proceedings, we compile the following from the Petersburg Index and Wilmington Journal:

Dr. S S Satchwell, of New Hanover, in the Chair. Prayer by Rev J B. Solomon.

Dr Geo A Foote then delivered an opening address to the delegates. He greeted them as friends, as benefactors to the race, and offered them the hospitalities of the village.

A Committee on Credentials was appointed, consisting of Drs McKee, Thomas and Foote. Roll called.

The following delegates answered to their names:

Drs S S Satchwell, J Wood, W G Thomas, from Wilmington; Drs E B Haywood, W McKee and F J Haywood, Jr., of Raleigh; Dr. Shaffner, of Sampson; Drs Norcom and Winborne, of Edenton; Drs Pierce and G H Macon, Halifax; Drs Hicks and Chestham, of Granville; Drs H Kelly and Potter, of Statesville; Dr Summerell, of Salisbury; Dr Breitz, of Salem; Drs Barron, Baker and Jones, of Edgecombe; Dr. Pugh, Martin county; Dr O'Hagan, Pitt county; Dr Falson, Duplin county; Drs Jervey and Squire, of Gaston; also, Drs Frank Patterson, Bennet Alston, R E and J E Williams, Ridley, Browne and A Plummer—the residences of the latter we were unable to learn.

Besides the delegates there were also present, Prof W T Howard, of the University of Medicine of Maryland.

Dr Otis F Manson, recently elected to one of the Chairs in the Richmond, Va., Medical College.

Dr. J. J. Summerell moved the appointment of a Central Committee on Business. After remarks by Drs. Summerell and O'Hagan, motion was lost.

Dr. E. Burke Haywood moved the appointment of a Committee on Finance. It was appointed by the Chair: Drs. E. B. Haywood, O'Hagan and Summerell.

Verbal report of Pitt county Medical Society by Dr. O'Hagan.

On motion of Dr. Foote, a committee of five was appointed to investigate cases of certain physicians who had violated the Code of Medical Ethics. Motion carried.—Chair appointed Drs. Foote, Winborne, E. B. Haywood, Summerell and O'Hagan.

Partial report by Dr. McKee, Chairman of Committee on Credentials.

Committee of Arrangements reported through Dr. Foote that the Annual Address would be delivered on Thursday, at 4 P. M. in the M. E. Church, by Dr. A. B. Norcom, of Edenton.

The second day's session was one of absorbing interest. Professor Howard by invitation, entertained the Society with some views of the new appliances in Medicine and Surgery, and a succinct account of the doctrinal views held by the leading Surgeons and Physicians of Baltimore. His style was peculiarly impressive and didactic—far above that of most of our professors.

In the afternoon the regular oration was delivered by Dr. Wm. A. B. Norcom, of Edenton, in the Methodist Church, to a large audience. His subject was strictly medical and treated of "Internal Inflammation and Alimentation." The address was delivered in a clear and earnest manner, engaging the attention of his audience, and even those outside the profession.

Dr. G. A Foote entertained the Society with his report upon the diseases and topography of Warren county.

The whole of the next day was consumed in the reading of medical essays, many of which were of a very superior character.—Among them may be mentioned the following:

"Post-Mortem Examination of cerebro-spinal meningitis," by Dr. N. J. Pittman, Tarborough.

"Surgical Cases," by Dr E. Burke Haywood, Raleigh.

"Healing of gun-shot fracture of thigh by first intention," by Dr. E. Porter, Jacksonville.

"Surgical Cases," by Dr. J. F. Shaffner, of Salem.

There were many other papers read of interest to all, many reports from Committees, and very much business of an important character transacted.

The following gentlemen were elected officers of the Society for the ensuing year:

President—Dr. E. Burke Haywood, Raleigh.

Vice Presidents—Dr. Thos. E. Wilson, Warren; Dr C. T. Murphy, Duplin; Dr. P. P. Pearce, Halifax; Dr.—Locke of Rowan.

Orator—Dr. R. H. Winborne, Chowan.

Secretary—Dr. Thos. F. Wood, Wilmington.

Treasurer—Dr. J. W. Jones, Tarboro'.

The meeting adjourned to meet in Salisbury, first Wednesday in May, 1869.

The New York Tribune suggests that the "returning prodigals," meaning the Southern States, be met and received, by the "trooly loil" radicals in a spirit of brotherly affection. The sentiment is noble indeed—quite worthy of the distinguished gentleman, Mr. Joseph Surface. The Tribune is remarkable for a happy combination of truculent vindicitiveness and maudlin hypocrisy which it manifests with a good deal more of recklessness than discretion. Just now it is pouring out a torrent of objurgation on the recusant Senators who have voted according to their judgment, and invoking what it calls generosity and magnanimity towards the Southern States. But in what does this Tribunitian generosity consist? The suggestion of the peaceable editor of the Tribune is that the proscriptive features of the Black Crook Constitution should be mitigated by restoring to the right of suffrage and holding office all who have co-operated with the "trooly loil" carpet-baggers in enforcing the reconstruction schemes of the radicals; which means, simply, that every body shall be permitted to vote, whose politics indicate that he will vote the radical ticket. This is what the Tribune intends by the "universal amnesty" which it coupled in with "universal suffrage," as its panacea for all of our political evils. This is the generous and magnanimous spirit which that paper displays towards the "returning prodigals." There is something ineffably repulsive in this perpetual search for the main chance in which the Tribune engages in season and out of season, and at one time more zealously than when it pretends to be virtuous and generous.—N. O. Crescent.

Directions for Getting Staves.

NORFOLK, May 27, 1868.

Messrs. Editors:—We give below the Inspection Law of the State of Virginia, which applies to our market.

White Oak Hogshead Staves must be 3½ feet long, all heart, 3 inches wide, ¾ inches thick on the thin edge, shaved smooth straight on sides and edges, clear of knots, worm holes, and wind shakes.

Red Oak Hogshead Staves must be 3 inches wide, if all heart, and 3½ inches wide if part sap—same length and thickness, and same requirements as White Oak Hogshead Staves.

White Oak Pipe Staves must be 4½ feet long, all heart, same width, thickness, and requirements as White Oak Hogshead Staves.

White Oak Hogshead Heading must be 5 inches wide, all heart, one-third each 28, 30 and 33 inches long, same thickness and requirements as White Oak Hogshead Staves.

White Oak Barrel Staves must be 34 inches long, 3 inches wide, all heart, same thickness, and requirements as White Oak Hogshead Staves.

Red Oak Hhhd. Staves, if gotten 44 inches long, 4 inches wide, and 1 inch thick, will command a better price than the ordinary dimensions, and are in more demand.

We would advise that all Staves and Heading should be gotten a little over the dimensions required by law, to allow for shrinkage.

It takes 1,200 pieces to make a thousand staves and Heading.

Staves and Heading of good quality always command remunerative prices in our market, and are nearly always in demand.

Having been engaged in selling Staves for eighteen years, we are perfectly conversant with the business, and flatter ourselves that we can and do always obtain the very highest prices.

Strict attention will be given to any consignments entrusted to our care, and prompt returns made. Any further information will be given on application, with pleasure.

TO LAND OWNERS.

HAVING BEEN APPOINTED, BY THE AMERICAN AGRICULTURAL AND MINING LAND COMPANY, Agent for all that part of North Carolina lying east of and including Catawba County, I am authorized to say, to any person or persons having 10,000 acres in one body, partially cleared and near a Rail Road, that if they will subdivide their lands the Company will purchase alternate lots at their assessed value for taxation or as ascertained by two disinterested parties, paying for the same in the Company's stock—the Company obligating itself to place a white settler on every 200 acres, so acquired, within three years, or, failing to do so, such land unsettled to revert to the original owner; the owner to retain possession until the land is settled.
The object of this system is to bring into the State an industrious and thrifty population and to enhance the value of our lands. It has been adopted in other States and is said to be working finely.
This Company was chartered by our Legislature of 1866. Land owners will please address me for particulars at Reidsville, N. C.

THE SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

THURSDAY, MAY 28, 1868.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Notice Mr. Tories auction sales. Also, pork on consignment.

BALLOON.—The news of the acquittal of President Johnson by the Court of Impeachment, received here on Tuesday, caused general pleasure and approval among the Conservative men of this city. A number of our young men sent up a balloon, named "Andrew Johnson" in front of the capitol at night, which went up gracefully and was wafted by the breeze until it passed out of sight.

RETURNED.—Col. Dewees we understand has returned from Chicago via Washington in good spirits. We think our downcast Radical friends in this section should cheer up. We have no doubt Congress will gratify their longings for office in a short time.

STRAWBERRIES.—Strawberries are selling in our streets as low as ten cents per quart. Can that be beaten?

TRINITY COLLEGE.—We call special attention to the Commencement exercises of this popular institution in our columns today. The programme is an interesting one and we presume a large crowd will be in attendance. Arrangements are made we believe, for visiters to pay but one fare on the Railroads as usual.

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE.—We again remind our readers not to forget that the Commencement exercises at Wake Forest College begin on Wednesday the 10th. of June next. L. P. Olds, Esq., of this city, delivers the address before the Literary Societies on the 10th. in the morning and Rev. Dr. McDowell, the address before the Alumni in the afternoon, and Rev. Dr. Hooper will preach the sermon before the graduating class at night. Exercises of the graduating class on Thursday. Visiters to the Commencement will pay only one fare on the Railroads.

CAPT. TOLAR.—The Wilmington Star says that the friends of Capt. Tolar are not idle. At the request of many friends, Judge Person, of New Hanover, visited Washington, a few days ago, in behalf of Captain Tolar, but owing to the pressure upon the time of the President, he could not remain long enough to obtain an interview with him.

QUICK WORK.—Mr. J. A. Hartsfield, of this county, shipped a quantity of Red Oak Hhd. Staves on Saturday last to Messrs. J. B Hunter & Co., Norfolk, Va., and received his money in return on the Wednesday following.

This week Rev. J. K. Howell, of this city, shipped a load of Prime Red Oak Hhd. Staves to the same house, which were sold for $45 per thousand, and the cash in hand. Why is it that so many colored men should complain of no work and hard times, when Stave timber is so abundant? Let them go to work. White Oak Hhd. and Pipe Staves are selling at about $90 per thousand.

At a meeting of the Baptist Home Mission Society, in New York, on Tuesday, a report was made to favor reconciliation between the Northern and Southern Baptists. The Southern Delegates were invited to the platform. Dr. Jeter, of Richmond, made a warm union speech.

The Goldsboro' News states that a negro man, named Whitley, killed another negro, named Henry Allred, on Monday, on the farm of Mr. Pearson, about ten miles from Goldsboro. Whitley made his escape

WHEAT IN GRANVILLE.—We are pleased to learn that the crop of wheat is very fine and promises to be abundant. The same impression, we are glad to learn, prevails pretty generally in the State.

A very subtle and terribly fatal disease is now raging among the cattle in some portions of Illinois. Over one hundred head have fallen victims to it within the past few days. It usually kills in a few hours. No premonitory warnings are given, and although all the skill in possession of ordinary practitioners has been brought to bear upon it, it yields to no remedy of treatment, and is fatal in every instance. Its name and nature have not yet been determined.

The Masonic fraternity of Springfield, Mass., has invited President Johnson to attend their celebration, to take place on St. John's Day, June 24th. The President has, in a letter, informed them that he will be unable to attend, but thanks them for the honor of an invitation.

The Southern frontier of Texas is almost completely overrun by Mexican bandits, and most of the murders attributed to Texan disloyalists are said to be their work.

Davis' resolution was amended by Ross, to make the Committee five, instead of three, to investigate corruption report, passed.

Arkansas' admission was discussed to adjournment.

The discussion was on minor details. No Republican opposes admission under the Constitution.

HOUSE.—A bill amending the laws for the collection of fines, penalties and frauds in customs passed.

The tax bill was introduced as heretofore printed.

Schenck said that there were several amendments which would be offered. Most of them were verbal.

Indian appropriations were discussed to adjournment.

The keys of the War Department are still with Gen. Townsend. Half of the guards have been removed.

Woolley was before the corruption Committee to-day, but refused to answer how he spent his money. He was re-committed.

It is stated that Grant favors Schofield's confirmation.

In Executive session the Senate referred Schofield's nomination to the Committee.

Revenue to-day $8,29,000.

Pretty rumors of Cabinet resignations but nothing reliable.

The Senate tabled the nomination of Phillip Faulks, Naval Agent at New Orleans. This action continues Sullivan in that office.

DAILY SENTINEL.

THURSDAY, MAY 28, 1868.

I AM DYING.

The following beautiful poem we copy from the Memphis Bulletin. It is rarely we fill such contributions to the columns of a newspaper. It is sweetly, beautifully sad:

Raise my pillow, husband, dearest—
Faint and fainter comes my breath:
And these shadows stealing slowly,
Must, I know, be those of death.
Sit down close beside me, darling,
Let me clasp your warm, strong hand,
Yours that ever has enstalled me,
To the borders of this land.

For your God and mine—our Father
Theuce shall ever lead me on;
Where upon a throne eternal,
Sits His loved and only Son;
I've had visions and been dreaming
O'er the past of joy and pain;
Year by year I've wandered backward,
Till I was a child again.

Dreaming of girlhood, and the moment,
When I stood your wife and bride,
How my heart thrilled Love's triumph,
In that hour of woman's pride,
Dreaming of thee and all the earth chords
Firmly twined about my heart—
Oh! the bitter burning anguish,
When I first knew we must part.

It has passed—and God has promised
All thy footsteps to attend;
He that's more than friend or brother,
He'll be with you to the end.
There's no shadow o'er the portals
Leading to my heavenly home—
Christ has promised life immortal,
And 'tis He that bids me come.

When life's trials await around thee,
And its chilling billows swell;
Then'll thank Heaven that I'm spared them,
Then'll then feel that "all is well."
Bring our boys unto my bedside;
My last blessing let them keep—
But they're sleeping—do not wake them;
They'll learn soon enough to weep.

Tell them often of their mother,
Kiss them for me when they wake,
Lead them gently in life's pathway,
Love them kindly for my sake.
Clasp my hand still closer, darling,
This, the last night of my life;
For to-morrow I shall never
Answer, when you call me "wife."
Fare thee well, my noble husband,
Faint not 'neath the chast'ning rod;
Throw your strong arm around our children,
Keep them close to thee—and God.

THE CAUSE OF TEMPERANCE.

Within the past two years, the temperance cause has, perhaps, made more progress in Kentucky than during any similar period in her history. There are at this time nearly two hundred lodges of Good Templars in the State, organized on a solid basis, and rapidly increasing in numbers.—Every town, village and hamlet is being awakened to this great interest, and thousands of young men on the high road to ruin, have been rescued, and are now worthy members of society. The Order of Good Templars is doing much towards renovating society. It has fallen to the lot of the female sex to adorn their lodges and make it inviting and agreeable for the husband, father and brother. Christianity is one of the predominant characteristics of this noble order. The mission of every member is to save his fellow-man from the fell destroyer liquor. The terrible evil of intemperance is the author of nine-tenths of the crimes committed.

A more degraded being than a confirmed drunkard cannot be conceived. A more useless being cannot be imagined. He is the very embodiment of everything that is vile, unworthy and contemptible. Yet we find men filling exalted positions surrendering themselves to such a life. It is because so large a number of the young men of our country follow such models, that crime runs rampant; that life and property are insecure; that thousands of the youth of the land are going down to drunkenness, debauchery and death, daily. That the Good Templars' work is the panaces for all this, there is no doubt. The remedy is no experiment. We have many instances of the great good this Order has accomplished in our own city. Who are our public benefactors? The drunkards or men of temperate habits? Is there a really useful man in the community who is a drunkard? Is there a single inebriate in the city who had not better have his neck broken than continue on in his miserable career?

The men who built this city of ours are our temperate and industrious citizens—men whose brains have not been clouded and impaired by poisonous liquors—men who have not wasted their time, money and wits in whisky shops. Temperance and idleness go hand in hand. There are two paths—one leads to ruin, and (as Josh Billings says) the machinery is all greased to carry you along without effort. The other leads to the highest success and happiness in any vocation. Social evils of various sorts are loudly demanding a remedy, and this remedy is sought in all places but the right place. Society is diseased by the baneful influence of liquor, and until this great evil is removed, we may expect the carnival of crime to continue.—Louisville Courier.

FEMALE INDIGNATION MEETING.—We understand that the colored females of Norfolk held an Indignation Meeting yesterday evening on the suburbs.

The object of the assemblage was to give his Honor, the Mayor, a "piece of their mind." A rumor had gone abroad, that his Honor had in his address, stated that the chlored people must quit loafing about the Market and go to work. The exaggerated reports also stated that he would send all the lazy ones to Africa, and do a great many other terrible things.

The body of our colored citizenesses met and appointed a President and Secretary; but this was all they succeeded in doing. They then rose, all at once, to "claim the floor," and such a chatter of tongues has not been heard for many a day. The officers of the meeting attempted to keep order—but all to no purpose, for they might have as well attempted to keep order at the Tower of Babel! They tried their best to be heard, but had to retire in disgust. The meeting then broke up in great confusion; and so this conspiracy against his Honor came to nothing.—Norfolk Journal.

A COLORED PREACHER ON BENEVOLENCE.

"Ise knowed many a church to die 'cause it didn't gibb enuff, but I neber knowed a church to die 'cause it gib too much. Dey don't die dat way. Bredren hab any of you knowed a church to die 'cause it gib too much? If you do, jest let me know, ah! I'll make a pilgrimage to dat church, I'll clime up by de soft light of de moon, to its moss-covered roof, and I'll stand there an' lift up my hands to heaven an' say: 'Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord.'"

Little Susie, pouring over a book in which angels were represented as winged beings, suddenly exclaimed with vehemence, "Mamma, I don't want to be an angel, and I needn't, need I?" "Why, Susie?" questioned her mother. "Humph, leave off all my pretty clothes, and wear fedders like a hen!"

William E. Pell, } Editors
Seaton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;

The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.—The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

The Bankrupt Act.

We have been requested to publish the Bankrupt Law. This is impossible. It makes a respectable volume. In order, however, that our readers may understand it, and may therefore not be liable to be imposed upon by parties, who are indifferent to the interests of others, we have taken some pains to compile from several sources the following general principles of the Act, for the benefit of all who contemplate seeking its benefits. But first of all, we advise our friends not to delegate hastily what they will do, until they have had the counsel of a respectable and intelligent Attorney, upon whom they can rely.

1. The manifest design of the Bankrupt Law is to benefit honest, but unfortunate, debtors, whose just liabilities are greater than they can pay.

2. To become a voluntary bankrupt under this Act, the debtor must owe at least $300, which, of course, he is not able to pay in full.

3. Petitioners under the Bankrupt Act are required to render a schedule of all their debts and liabilities, of every kind and description whatever, and also an inventory of all their estate, both real and personal, including all property and effects of which they are possessed, or in which they may have an interest, (though not in possession) in conformity with certain "Forms" prescribed in the "General Orders" of the Supreme Court of the United States. These schedules, verified by the oath of the petitioner before a District Court Judge, Register in Bankruptcy, or U S Commissioner, must accompany the petition and, when filed, is the commencement of proceedings in Bankruptcy. If it should be found out, pending the proceedings at any time before the bankrupt is discharged, that he has, by any shift or subterfuge, made a false or partial schedule, this would be evidence of fraud and would defeat his discharge.

4. When the petition is by a firm or copartnership, a full set of schedules of the respective estates of the members of the firm should also be added.

5. When the petition is filed, the case is immediately referred to a Register, who examines the petition and schedules annexed thereto, and if they are correct in form, makes a certificate to that effect, to be filed with the Clerk, then adjudges the debtor a Bankrupt and issues a warrant to the messenger to summon all the creditors named in the petitioner's schedules to meet at the Register's office, at a certain time and place, to prove their claims and elect one or more Assignees to take charge of the Bankrupt's estate.

6. A creditor can, however, prove his claim at any time previous to the last dividend, which will generally be six months subsequent to the adjudication of Bankruptcy.

7. No creditor has any standing in a Bankrupt Court until he proves his claim.

8. Creditors have no right to compel the Bankrupt to answer questions concerning the disposal of property by him acquired subsequent to filing a petition in Bankruptcy. "In other words, the date of the filing of the petition by or against a debtor, is the date at which, if adjudication of bankruptcy follows, the old order of things passes away and a new leaf is turned over." On this point decisions have been variant. The safe rule appears to be, that the applicant in Bankruptcy has a perfect right to claim whatever he has made after his application, by his personal exertions, but any profits he may have made, from investment or credit, may be liable to the claim of the receiver up to almost the period of his discharge.

9. The Bankrupt can apply to the Court at any time after the expiration of six months, and within one year from the adjudication, for the discharge in bankruptcy, and in case no assets come into the hands of the assignee, or no debts be proved against his estate, at any time after the expiration of sixty days.

10 As soon as an Assignee is elected or appointed, the Judge or Register will convey to him, by deed of assignment, all the bankrupt's property except what is exempted, viz: House-hold and kitchen furniture and other necessaries not exceeding in value $500; five hundred dollars; also his wearing apparel and that of his wife and children, and such other property not included in the foregoing as is exempt from levy and sale upon execution or other process by the laws of the State in which the bankrupt resides, (one amount not exceeding that allowed by State exemption laws in force in 1867.) A safe "Counsellor suggests, under this head, that the common impression that persons may become bankrupts and yet be allowed to retain their homes and lands, or other property of considerable value, is a great mistake. Under the Act, no honest Bankrupt in this State can have allotted to him, free from the operation of the Act, exceeding $700, besides the wearing apparel of himself and family. Bankrupts in this State are not entitled to homesteads under this Act.

11 It is the duty of the assignee, within twenty days after the assignment to him is made, to add to the bankrupt such articles as are omitted, and file an inventory of the same with the value of each article so allotted, and creditors may make objections to the report of the Assignee at any time within twenty days after it is filed.

12. As to costs in bankruptcy proceedings, section 46 of the Bankrupt Act provides that the petitioner, before a warrant issues, shall deposit fifty dollars with the Register, or with the Clerk, to be delivered to the Register as a security for his fees. General order XXIX provides that the fees of the Register, Marshal and Clerk shall be prepaid or secured before they can be compelled to act. It is also provided by General order XXX that where the debtor has no means, and can prove the fact to the satisfaction of the Court, upon application, an order will be made requiring all the costs in the case to be paid out of the fifty dollars deposited with the Register. If, however, there are assets, but not enough to pay the Messenger after deducting the Bankrupt's exempted property, so that nothing comes into the hands of the Assignee, the fees will have to be paid by the Bankrupt; but if the Assignee receives assets, the fees of the Messenger will be paid by him before any dividend is made among creditors.

13 Some suppose that the Register is entitled to $50 fee. The fees of the Register, Messenger, Clerk, and costs of publication of notices in Bankruptcy, are fixed by law, and if they demand higher fees, they are liable, as in other cases of malfeasance in office. In ordinary cases of Bankruptcy, the fees may amount to $100. In some cases more, in some less—the costs depending on the amount of labor and litigation involved in each case.

14. Differences of opinion among Attorneys have existed in this State, as to the limit which the Act makes as to the time to make application in Bankruptcy. Some have supposed that no debtor will be permitted to apply for Bankruptcy after some early day in March, unless he is able to pay fifty per cent of his debts. We are assured that this is not the case. The law did not go into operation for the purpose for which it was enacted until June 1st, 1867. It gives twelve months from that time, to all honest debtors, whatever may be the extent of their indebtedness which they cannot pay in which to present their applications. After the 1st of June next, every debtor must be able to pay fifty per cent of his indebtedness, in order to a successful application in bankruptcy, unless he first obtain the consent of a majority of his creditors.

GENERAL REMARKS.

Revenue stamps may be used indiscriminately upon any of the matters or things enumerated in Schedule B, except proprietary and playing card stamps, for which a special use has been provided.

Postage stamps cannot be used in payment of the duty chargeable on instruments.

It is the duty of the maker of an instrument to affix and cancel the stamp thereon. If he neglects to do so, the party for whom it is made may stamp it before it is used; and if used after the 30th of July, 1864, and used without a stamp, it cannot afterwards be effectually stamped. Any failure upon the part of the maker of an instrument, to appropriately stamp it, renders him liable to a penalty of two hundred dollars.

Suits are commenced in many States by other process than writ, viz: summons, warrants, publication, &c., in which case these, as the original process, severally require stamps.

Writs of scire facias are subject to stamp duty as original process.

The jurat of an affidavit, taken before a Justice of the Peace Notary Public, or other officer duly authorized to take affidavits, is held to be a certificate, and is subject to a stamp duty of five cents, except when taken in suits of legal proceedings.

Certificates of loan in which there shall appear any printed or written evidence of an amount of money to be paid on demand or at any time designated, are subject to stamp duty as Promissory Notes.

The assignment of a mortgage is subject to the same duty as that imposed upon the original instrument; that is to say, for every sum of five hundred dollars, or any fractional part thereof, of the amount secured by the mortgage, at time of its assignment, there must be affixed a stamp or stamps, denoting a duty of five cents.

When two or more persons join in the execution of an instrument, the stamps to which this instrument is liable, under the law, may be affixed and cancelled by one of the parties.

In conveyance of real estate, the law provides that the stamp affixed must answer to the value of the estate or interest conveyed.

No stamp is required on warrant of attorney accompanying a bond or note, when such bond or note has affixed thereto the stamps or stamps denoting the duty required and whenever any bond or note is secured by mortgage, but one stamp duty is required on such papers, such stamp duty being the highest rates required for such instruments, or either of them. In such case a note or memorandum of the value or denomination of the stamp affixed should be made upon the margin or in the acknowledgment of the instrument which is not stamped.
